The humble Address of the Inhabitants of the ancient Town and Borough of Southwark.

SIRE!

WHILE the Minds of all your faithful Subjects are filled with Gratitude to Divine Providence for the Restoration of your Majesty's Health, the Inhabitants of Southwark desire to testify their full Participation in the general Joy.

The Anxiety of all Ranks for your Majesty's Recovery, the entire Preservation of public Order, the Proceedings of Parliament, at once demonstrative of their steady and dutiful Attachment to your Majesty, and of their Attention to the Public Safety, constitute a Monument which all Europe will admire, present one the fairest Pages in the Annals of Nations, and will shew to the latest Posterity that your Majesty reigned in the Hearts of your People.

That it may please the Almighty to continue to your Majesty the Blessing of Health and of every domestic Comfort, and that you may long reign happily over a free and united People, is the ardent Prayer of your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects.

Signed at the Town-Hall at St. Margaret's Hill, by the unanimous Desire of the Meeting, the 13th of March, 1789.

Wm. Weston, Chairman.

The humble and unanimous Address of the Lord Mayor, Freemen, Citizens and Inhabitants of the City of York, assembled at the Guildhall.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord-Mayor, Freemen, Citizens and Inhabitants of your ancient and loyal City of York, beg Leave to take the earliest Opportunity of expressing, in this public Manner, our heartfelt Joy and Satisfaction on the happy and providential Re-establishment of your Majesty's Health.

The Experience we have had of your Majesty's paternal Concern for the public Good, and the Benefit we derive from your wise and auspicious Government, have most justly endeared your Majesty to your Subjects, and render us doubly anxious for the Preservation of your invaluable Life.

To reign in the Hearts of a free People is the surest Criterion of true Glory which any Monarch can obtain. The Voice of Truth and Gratitude proclaim your Majesty's undoubted Right to that Illustrious Distinction; and we trust it will ever continue the brightest Jewel in your Crown.

May that Gracious Providence, to whom we owe the Restoration of your Majesty's Health, long, very long, insure to you that inestimable Blessing, attended with the Continuance of every domestick Comfort; and may your Royal Solicitude for the publick Welfare ever meet with adequate Returns of Duty and Affection from a grateful and loyal People.

At the Request, and on the Behalf, of the Meeting,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs and Commonalty of your ancient and loyal City of York, beg Leave to take the earliest Opportunity of expressing, in this public Manner, our heartfelt Joy and Satisfaction on the happy and providential Re-establishment of your Majesty's Health.

To reign in the Hearts of a free People is the ſureſt Criterion of true Glory which any Monarch can obtain. The Voice of Truth and Gratitude proclaim your Majeſty's undoubted Right to that Illuſtrious Diſtinction; and we truſt it will ever continue the brighteſt Jewel in your Crown.

May that gracious Providence, to whom we owe the Reſtoration of your Majeſty's Health, long, very long, inſure to you that ineſtimable Bleſſing, attended with the Continuance of every domeſtick Comfort; and may your Royal Solicitude for the publick Welfare ever meet with adequate Returns of Duty and Affection from a grateful and loyal People.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble, loyal and congratulatory Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, Citizens and Principal Inhabitants of the City of Durham, and its Environs.

Moſt Gracious and Potent Monarch,

GReat Britain, the Queen of Iſles and Pride of Nations, Arbitreſs of Europe, perhaps of the World; the Nurſery of the Arts, Freedom and Independence; the Terror of her Enemies, and Scourge of Tyrants, is once more raiſed from a depending humbled Situation to its preſent glorious and reſplendent Acme of Power, Opulence, and Grandeur, by a Deſcendant of the great and illuſtrious Chatham, and his reſponſible Coadjutors in Adminiſtration, under the immediate Direction, benign and ſpirited Auſpices of our moſt gracious, potent and much-beloved Sovereign, for whoſe happy Reſtoration to the ineſtimable Bleſſings of Health, Domeſtic Felicity, and for the Political Salvation and Comfort of theſe Realms, the humble and grateful Adorations to the Omnipotent be ever due.

The Vallies may now again be juſtly ſaid to laugh and ſing, and the Mountains leap for Joy, praiſing the One Eternal for His infinite Mercies.

Your Majeſty's moſt loyal and affectionate Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, Citizens and Principal Inhabitants of the City of Durham and its Environs, (than whom your Majeſty has not in all your Dominions a People more attached to your Royal Perſon, Family and Government) do moſt ſincerely and pathetically join in the general Joy upon that happy Occaſion.

We do, with equal Sincerity and Truth, moſt humbly preſume to congratulate your Majeſty, our moſt gracious Queen, and all your Majeſty's dear and affectionate Relatives, and Country, thereupon.

Long, very long, may your Sacred Majeſties continue to enjoy uninterrupted Health, Happineſs, and Proſperity, and to bleſs and reign, as you do, in the Hearts of, and over, a free and generous People, now juſtly become the Envy and Admiration of ſurrounding Nations, under and through your benign and moſt paternal Care. And may their happy Situation convince the World, it is their Birthright to be free; and that all Government is, or ought to be, like our's, conſented to and inſtituted by and for the Benefit of the governed.

May the like Bleſſings, as are now enjoyed by your Majeſty's loyal and affectionate Subjects of every Denomination, be continued to them and to the lateſt Poſterity, in and under your Royal Perſon and Auguſt Illuſtrious Houſe.

Given under our Hands, this 5th Day of March, in the Year of our Lord 1789, and deſired to be preſented to the Throne by Sir William Appleby.

Unto the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The Addreſs of the Noblemen, Freeholders, Juſtices of the Peace, Commiſſioners of Supply and Heritors of the County of Edinburgh.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Noblemen, Freeholders, Juſtices of the Peace, Commiſſioners of Supply and Heritors of the County of Edinburgh, approach your Majeſty's Throne, inſpired with the warmeſt Sentiments of Loyalty and Affection.

Moſt gratefully ſenſible of the Bleſſings we have enjoyed under your Majeſty's wiſe and mild Government, which, for a long Period of Years, has ſecured to theſe Realms the higheſt Meaſure of Civil Happineſs, and of Political Freedom, it was with the deepeſt Concern and Regret we felt the Enjoyment of thoſe Bleſſings in Hazard of being interrupted by the dangerous Illneſs of our Sovereign. Animated no leſs by that Patriotic Affection which every true Briton feels for the ſacred Conſtitution of his Country, than by the Heartfelt Regard which is due to your Majeſty's perſonal Character and private Virtues, we now indulge a proportional Joy, and return an adequate Tribute of Gratitude to Heaven, for the compleat Reſtoration of that precious Health, with which the Happineſs of Individuals, and the Proſperity of the Empire at large, are ſo intimately connected.

Amidſt thoſe Feelings which now occupy your Royal Breaſt, there are two Reflections which cannot fail to afford your Majeſty a high Degree of Satisfaction. The one is that, during the late Suſpenſion of the Executive Government, the Conſtitution itſelf has been preſerved inviolate by the watchful Care and Attention of the remaining Branches of the Legiſlature. The other, that in the general Concern and Anxiety of all Ranks of your Subjects during the melancholy Period of your Majeſty's Illneſs, you have had the ſtrongeſt poſſible Proof how much you reign in the Hearts and Affections of your People.

Accept, moſt Gracious Sovereign, this ſincere Teſtimony of our Duty and Attachment, while, with a Zeal increaſed by the awful Senſe of that Calamity from which it has pleaſed Heaven to deliver us, we remain your Majeſty's moſt faithful Subjects.

By Appointment of the Meeting,

Buccleugh, Præſes.

Edinburgh, March 9, 1789.

[Tranſmitted by the Right Honourable Henry Dundas, Repreſentative in Parliament for that County.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Right Honourable the Lord Provoſt, Magiſtrates and Council of the City of Edinburgh, in Common Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Provoſt, Magiſtrates and Council of the City of Edinburgh, deeply impreſſed preſſed with Gratitude to Almighty God for the manifold Bleſſings enjoyed under your Majeſty's Reign, and no leſs impreſſed with a Senſe of the Danger from which, by the Interpoſition of the Divine Mercy to an afflicted People, we are recently delivered, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on the happy Re-eſtabliſhment of your Health; an Event ſo important to your faithful and affectionate Subjects, and ſo joyful to your Illuſtrious Houſe.

While we thus render to the Almighty, from whom every Bleſſing deſcends, our humble Thanks for this Diſpenſation of Providence, we devoutly implore that He may long preſerve your Majeſty, as an Earneſt of His Gracious Purpoſe to continue that Divine Protection with which the Nation, on this and other Occaſions, has been ſo ſignally favoured.

Signed and ſealed in our Preſence, and by our Appointment, this 9th Day of March, 1789, by

Tho. Elder, Provoſt.
